

SCORECARD

Senior PHP Laravel Developer / Architect

40 UUR // SENIOR

Your mission as Senior PHP Laravel developer / Architect

As a senior developer you are an integral part of the architecture team aiming to improve our high quality framework and key-features for our projects and products. The developer will collaborate with the Product Owner, UX- and Development teams to ensure our framework and toolset is futureproof, state-of-the-art and meets our high-quality requirements and setup.

Accountabilities

- 01 Clean and compliant code conventions and git flow for all your tasks
- 02 Successful implementation and execution of your tasks from start to finish
- 03 Optimal cooperation and support to all development team members
- 04 Accurate and efficient timemanagement, estimations and time logging
- 05 Manage use of hardware, company and customer data, while making sure used tooling and produced code meets the highest possible security standards

Competenties en skills

- » Has experience in working in a scrum/lean environment
- » A strong team player
- » Have 6+ years of PHP skills
- » Have 3+ years of Laravel back-end experience
- » Have 2+ years of WP back-end experience
- » Good knowledge of MySQL
- » Good knowledge of Linux / Debian
- » Good knowledge of Swagger and Xdebug
- » Experience with Docker, Kubernetes, Git and Git-flow
- » Experience with API development techniques and WordPress Restful API
- » Experience with Jira and Confluence
- » Be familiar with RabbitMQ and Redis
- » Be familiar with REST, GraphQL
- » The intrinsic need- and ability to apply new technologies and existing tooling quickly
- » An analytical mind with the ability to collect and analyze information and identify possible solutions quickly
- » Proficient verbal and written communication in Dutch and English

Responsibilities

- » Working closely with other developers, Product owner, Project management, Product Management, UX designers, business and systems analysts
- » Testing and deploying features, releases and systems
- » Produce secure code with highest possible performance
- » Keep track of assigned tasks, personal planning and roadmap tasks
- » Introduce new techniques, tooling and architecture to our framework
- » Suggest new features that would benefit all current and future products

- » Take part in reviewing own work and leads reviews of colleague's work (unit testing, code review)
- » Producing clean, efficient code according to design and requirements
- » Testing and evaluating task results before supplying for QA
- » Identifying areas for refactoring in existing programs and subsequently developing these modifications
- » Fixing and improving existing software
- » Analyse and understand requirements on tasks and suggest alternative solutions
- » Providing solutions that are production ready or ready for minimal QA testing
- » Monitor module and plugin versions on all projects you are working on and update if needed
- » Utilize comparing methods to provide before/after data on optimization
- » Add technical documentation for your features/work

Output

These indicators will allow you to contribute optimally to the company's goals and successes.

Across the board, manage all issues on average 98% within estimation window

Help meet required delivery time and full release within planned timeframe for whole team

Commit code with 100% code conventions checkup

Commit code to release with 100% test script issues prevented

Let's start your Dotlab adventure

werken@dotlab.nl

or

+31 (0)10 310 34 10